Friends,

It is with great joy and anticipation that we invite you to join us for a truly historic celebration, St. Joseph Center's Golden 50th Anniversary Gala on Saturday, June 6, 2026, at the Fairmont Century Plaza.

Our theme, Opening Doors & Transforming Lives, reflects five decades of compassion, innovation, and impact. For 50 years, St. Joseph Center has stood as a beacon of hope, rooted in our mission to build a Beloved Community where every neighbor has the support to rise, rebuild, and thrive.

Each year, St. Joseph Center serves nearly 15,000 people through our comprehensive programs in Housing, Outreach, Mental Health, and Education & Workforce Development. In addition, our food programs play a vital role in ensuring that no one in our community goes hungry. Each week, our Food Pantry supports more than 700 working families, providing enough groceries for 164,000 meals annually and welcoming over 21,000 visitors each year. Meanwhile, our Bread & Roses Café proudly serves more than 46,000 nutritious meals annually to individuals experiencing homelessness and food insecurity.

The evening's proceeds will directly support this life-changing work, enabling more families and individuals to find stability, opportunity, and renewed dignity.

Our Golden Gala promises to be an unforgettable night of inspiration, celebration, and purpose, complete with elegant dining, live entertainment, and heartfelt tributes to the extraordinary people and partners who make our mission possible. Together, we will honor our past while building a bold and compassionate future for Los Angeles.

We hope you'll join us as we celebrate this milestone moment in St. Joseph Center's history and continue Opening Doors and Transforming Lives for generations to come!

Sincerely,

Dr. Ryan J. Smith
President and CEO

Where we began

For five decades, St. Joseph Center has offered hope through empowerment in Los Angeles, opening more doors with one mission in mind: to help people overcome homelessness by filling in the gaps in the system with formal assistance, functional resources, human kindness, and Beloved Community.

We recognize the unique circumstances of each person we serve, focusing on who they are and not simply where they've ended up. We understand that homelessness is often a result of circumstances, systems and institutions bigger than an individual, not a reflection of character.

At St. Joseph Center we go above and beyond to ensure individuals and families can connect, stabilize and maintain a home, a life, a future. It all started with a field trip in 1976. Sister Marilyn Therese Rudy of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet took her high school social justice class to Venice. Moved by the people she met who were struggling to stay fed, clothed and housed, Sister Marilyn and Sister Louise Bernstein began offering food and clothing. They saw their task as renewing hope in all people and empowering them to take steps to heal their lives.

The Sisters began providing advocacy and referrals, and assisting families with basic needs such as food, clothing, and job readiness in a small storefront on Rose Avenue in Venice. They called it St. Joseph Center.

Rooted in the beliefs of the founding Sisters that we belong to one another and must uplift our dear neighbors, St. Joseph Center now supports more than 15,000 low-income and housing-insecure people through multiple locations, dozens of programs, and hundreds of staff and countless volunteers.

Three Success Stories

Cassie overcame homelessness on Skid Row. Despite a lifelong disability and painful daily challenges, she earned her Associate's Degree while navigating housing instability and a complex justice system that temporarily separated her from her son. Her relentless self-advocacy led to interim housing at St. Joseph Center's La Ramona Interim Housing Community, where she rebuilt her life. "I didn't expect everything to be brand new. They put a welcome mat out," Cassie shared, highlighting gratitude for her case manager, Talisha. Now in a permanent home, Cassie is pursuing work and educational opportunities, determined to become a counselor and empower others. women and men graduated from our job training programs.

Uri was caught in a cycle of addiction, crime, and incarceration that left him experiencing homelessness and disconnected from his children. He found his way to St. Joseph Center's Bread & Roses Training Kitchen program, seeking a chance to change his life. The culinary training gave him structure and confidence, showing him the importance of professionalism, community, and responsibility.

Drawing on his training and life lessons, Chef Uri shares, "We all play a vital role—no matter how insignificant or how major. The same applies in the kitchen." This full-circle transformation turned Chef Uri into a full-time chef at Beit T'Shuvah in Culver City and a sober leader and, most importantly, the proud father who attended his daughter's graduation.

From an early age, Ashanti faced immense challenges, including poverty, gang violence, and significant personal struggles. Despite experiencing homelessness, becoming a mother ignited a fierce resolve to change her circumstances. At St. Joseph Center she discovered Codetalk, a program that equips low-income women with computer coding skills. Ashanti described Codetalk as life-changing, providing her with the platform and skills to pursue a meaningful career in the dynamic and growing tech industry. She landed a data science and analytics internship at Warner Bros.
